Paper No: Hist. 501

India’s Struggle for Freedom 1857 – 1947

5. Freedom with Partition: World War II and Indian nationalism – Quit India Movement – circumstances leading to Partition and Independence - the legacy of Indian Nationalism.

Reading list:

John Keay, India Discovered, (Rupa, 1989).
Kenneth Jones, Socio-Religions Reform Movements in British India, (Cambridge India, 1994).
Arabinda Poddar, Renaissance in Bengal Quests and Confrontations, (Simla, Indian Institute of Advanced Studies, 1970).
Bipan Chandra, et.al., India’s Struggle for Independence, (Penguin India, 1989).
Bipan Chandra, The Rise and Growth of Economic Nationalism in India, (People’s Publishing House, New Delhi, 1982).
Bipan Chandra, Nationalism and Colonialism in Modern India, (Orient Longman, New Delhi, 1979).
R.C. Majumdar, British Paramountcy and the Indian Renaissance, Pts. I & II. (Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan)

R.C. Majumdar, Struggle for Freedom, (Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan)

Subaltern Studies, Vols. I to XII

Janaki Nair, Miller and Miners, Oxford University Press, New Delhi

G. Alosius, Nationalism Without A Nation in India, Oxford University, New Delhi, 1999

Mushirul Hassan (ed.), India’s Partition, New Delhi, 1996.

***