PLAGIARISM CHECK SERVICE GUIDELINES

******

It is mandatory for students pursuing doctoral studies in Mangalore University to get the originality of their thesis certified before submitting it for adjudication. This certification is done by verifying the thesis through software that checks for plagiarism. Prospective doctoral students may please take note of the following guidelines:

- Thesis for certification should be submitted to the library a fortnight (15 Days) before the thesis is actually submitted for adjudication.

- Download the Application Form for plagiarism check from the Mangalore University website (http://www.mangaloreuniversity.ac.in) under the heading LIBRARY.

- Submit the final soft copy of the thesis for certification along with the completed Application Form and the Bank Challan in proof of the fee paid.

  (Note* : Fee details are given in the Application Form. Please enclose copy of challan along with the Application Form. International students shall pay the plagiarism test fees along with their Applications.)

- Soft copy of the thesis in CD format (preferably in CD-ROM/ DVD) in full length including bibliography/references and any other annexures. The thesis must be in PDF format.

- The Title Page, preliminary pages (title, declaration, dedication, certificates, acknowledgement , list of tables and graphs etc.), Table of Contents, Abstract, each chapters and annexures (bibliography, references, index, and questionnaire) should also be submitted in a separate PDF file.

- Candidates should write their Name, Department, and Title of thesis, email address and Contact no. on the CD without fail.

- The library requires 24 hours time to run the thesis through the anti-plagiarism software.

- It is the responsibility on the part of Research Scholar and the Research Guide to go through the passages identified by the software as plagiarized material and make appropriate changes to the thesis.

- The limit for plagiarism is up-to 10% of Similarity Index for doctoral thesis. The researchers have to contact the ETD Lab personnel for getting the scanned copy for perusal and rectification when it exceeds the limit.

- Articles published by the researcher as a part of the research work which are displayed by the software as plagiarism will be overlooked subject to the production of a certified copy of the original article.

(Note: Submit the final soft copy of the thesis for certification. No further corrections are allowed after giving to plagiarism check. If the plagiarism is within the limit, the same shall be copied to the CD with seal and reference number of Shodhganga. The same CD shall be submitted to evaluation.)
